Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Something of Interest to the Young Men of Maysville.

The management of the Local Y. M. C. A. believe that the ladies of our city are deeply interested in the present and future welfare of the Association, and recognizing the fact that their influence and help would greatly assist in establishing and promoting the efficiency of this work, the Directors have, therefore, instructed the President to appoint a committee of ladies to be known as the Women's Committee of the Y. M. C. A., whose purpose shall be to further the interests of the Association in the homes of our city and to co-operate with the committees of young men in the social and other departments of Association work. President Cox has asked the following ladies to serve in this capacity: Mrs. J. H. Dodson, Miss Grace Bierbower, Mrs. Holt Richeson, Mrs. M. C. Russell, Mrs. H. C. Sharp, Miss Stevenson, Mrs. S. M. Hall, Miss Mary January, Mrs. R. A. Cochran, Miss Nettie Robinson, Mrs. James H. Hall, Miss Trouts, Mrs. W. H. Cox, Miss Amy Phister. Rules for the government of the committee were adopted at the first meeting held last week and officers were chosen as follows: Chairman—Mrs. Joseph H. Dodson. Vice-Chairman—Mrs. H. C. Sharp. Secretary—Miss Amy Phister.

On Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the members of the committee will visit the Zweigart Block for the purpose of inspecting the new Association Rooms, after which they will hold a business meeting in the Cox Building and perfect plans for their new work.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR;
Blue—RAIN OR SNOW;
With Black ABOVE—TWILL WARMS UP.
If Black's BENEATH—COLDER TWILL BE;
Unless Black's shown—no change we'll have.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening.

The Pastor's Union of this city will meet on Monday afternoon at 8 o'clock in the study of Rev. Mr. Trotter at the First Baptist Church.

Mrs. Jennie Stewart, who was President Harrison's efficient Postmaster at Vanceburg, will be an applicant for appointment under the new Administration.

Mr. W. T. Willim, a law student in the office of Messrs. Thomas & Pugh at Vanceburg, was married recently to Miss Bertha Clary, one of Lewis county's most excellent young ladies.

By direction of the President, Captain Henry Wygant, Twenty-fourth Infantry, at his own request, is relieved from duty at the Central University of Kentucky, Richmond, and will join his company.

Northcott & Co. of Lancaster slaughtered 25,000 turkeys for the Eastern markets last year, and this season they expect to increase this to 30,000. The head of this firm is Mr. H. B. Northcott, formerly of this city.

The irregularity in the returns from McLean, Montgomery and Marshall counties is that the county boards only certified to the McKinley vote and the Bryan vote, instead of certifying to the vote for each Elector.

If you are looking for a bargain in Gold Watches or any goods in the line of Fine Jewelry, Silverware, Clock Bronzes, etc., P. J. Murphy the Jeweler is overstocked. You can buy these goods cheaper now than ever before.

Mrs. George B. Galbreath of Mayslick sent to THE LEDGER Saturday a bouquet of magnificent chrysanthemums, embracing several of the finest varieties and choicest colors.

The Court of Appeals Saturday affirmed the judgment of the Bracken Circuit Court in the case of Laughlin, the murderer of his wife and niece. Laughlin was sentenced to hang and the Governor will now be called upon to name the day for his execution.

Mr. William A. Tribble and Miss Sudie Lee Pickett, the charming daughter of ex-Sheriff J. C. Pickett, will be married Thursday evening, November 26th, at "West View," near Dover. Mr. Tribble resides at Stanford, where he is practicing law.

THE LEDGER was requested to print the result of a "drawing" for a stove, held in this city Saturday. Would be glad to oblige; but Uncle Sam wouldn't let THE LEDGER go through the mails if we did; it would be a clear violation of the Anti-Lottery Law.

Mrs. Mary A. Grimes died at Portsmouth Friday morning, aged 83. She had been in feeble health for a long time. Mrs. Grimes was one of Portsmouth's oldest residents, having located there in 1836. She was the mother-in-law of Mr. John D. Bridges, formerly of this city.

The Hillsboro (O.) News-Herald says there is a move on foot for the construction of an electric railway line from Washington C. H. through Hillsboro, Georgetown and Ripley, to Maysville. Sorry to hear that the movement is "on foot," it may give out before it gets here, as did the Columbus and Maysville scheme. Why not start it on wheels?

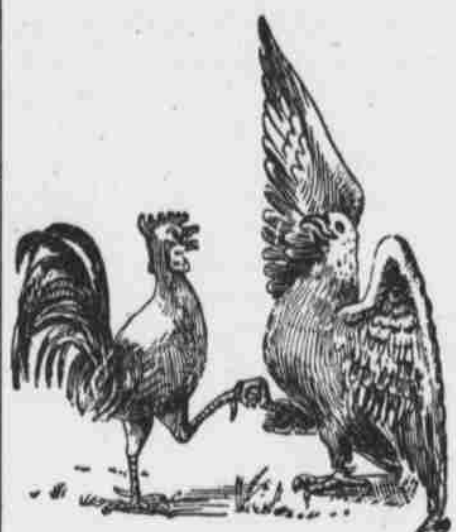

Rev. Joseph Rennie preached two of as fine sermons as were ever heard in this city to two large congregations. There were two additions to the Church last night. There will be preaching this afternoon at 2 and tonight at 7. The Pastor and congregation of the Central Presbyterian Church cordially invite everybody in the city to attend these meetings.

Among the funny things of Saturday was the payment of an election wager by Andy Madden. Andy was a Bryan shouter, and he found an ardent McKinley man in Oscar Guy. The wager was that if Bryan was elected Oscar should treat Andy to a wheelbarrow ride from Jersey Ridge into the Ohio river and vice versa. Andy lost, and he paid his bet like a man, wheeling Mr. Guy up Second street amid the shouts of thousands who had gathered to see the big parade, and not stopping till he had wheeled him into the river.

THEY WERE JOLLY!

SATURDAY'S PARADE A BIG SUCCESS.

Some of the Banners in Line, and One That Was Decidedly Disgraceful.

Saturday was Republican and Sound Money Democratic Day in Maysville.

The Lord never smiled more beneficently on a cause than He has on the devoted millions who planted their banners on the rocks of National Honor and an Honest Dollar for every one who gives or receives it.

If He "raised up Bryan as the Moses to lead the American people out of a bondage fastened upon them by the money power," as the Free-silver stumpers and writers proclaimed, it is evident that he kept up the Moses racket to the end; for the old Israelite was permitted only to cast his eyes upon the Promised Land, and die;—and so Bryan, while cavorting around the country on forty-mile-an-hour railway trains and shooting off his mouth at a sixty words-a-minute gait, was permitted to view the White House, and get beat by more than a million votes.

Other evidences of Providential favor are found in the beautiful weather on election day, and the bright sunshine that greeted the paraders on Saturday.

All forenoon people were coming into the city, and by 2 o'clock the streets were crowded, at least two thousand visitors attending.

They had come to share in and enjoy the ratification of McKinley's triumph, which was celebrated by Republicans and Sound Money Democrats in a street parade.

The local campaign clubs, reinforced by several hundred persons who came from surrounding towns in conveyances, on horseback and on foot, assembled at the Courthouse, and shortly after 2 o'clock the procession moved under direction of Grand Marshal W. W. Gault.

It was a happy go-lucky column of jollifiers that marched through the principal streets to the music of Captain George W. Tudor's Sixteen-to-One-Band, —sixteen John Mathews Republicans to one George Tudor Democrat,—and to describe some of the "ludicrous outfits" would require the brush of a Nast, the pen of a Taylor, and the ridicule of a Nye.

Among the pretty features was a big wagon occupied by sixteen little Misses in white and one in yellow—representing the much discussed issue of the campaign,—and a wagon decorated by the enterprising Dawson Bros. of the Sixth Ward.

Colonel John V. Day occupied a high position on one of the wagons, bearing aloft a splendid specimen of the American Eagle, beneath which hung a defunct Democratic dunghill.

The banners bore a variety of mottoes applicable to incidents of the local campaign, among the most salient these:

"It was Cohesion and not Coercion that carried the First Ward."

"I will be my own successor."

"If we can't win by the ballot we can by the bullet."

"Give me the nomination and I will make Old More climb a tree."

"Rocky Mountain Plagues."

"Colorado Potato Bug."

"Texas Cattle Plague."

"Silver Crisis."

"We will paint the town red."

Silver Argument—Ancient Eggs.

Three Cox that can crow—Bills, George and Orlando.

"McKinley won't carry four states."

Dr. King, No. 13 West Second street.

Davis Was Too Much for Marsh.

Wonder what Jim Hall did with that rooster?

Lincoln's speech on the Crime of '73.

"Bryan will be overwhelmingly elected."

"I know what the matter with me. I talked too d-d much."

Is Perry Thomas still betting on Bryan?

Did Wes. Vincy sell His 12 Horses?

Letter Carriers will soon begin to "smell."

Why didn't John Alexander take supper with Bryan?

WORK OF A SMART ALECK.

Disgracing Exhibition By a Disgruntled Free-Silverman.

The local correspondent of The Courier-Journal Saturday evening sent the following telegram to his paper:

MAYSVILLE, Ky. Nov. 14th.—The Republicans jollified over McKinley's election by firing cannon all day and with a street parade this afternoon. W. W. Gault was Grand Marshal and Chris. Russell, an ex-Democratic City Councilman, was Assistant Marshal. The colored voters outnumbered the white voters in the parade three to one. One of the banners carried by some colored men and women in an open carriage read:

Black and White all the same now.

This banner attracted more attention and comment than all the rest.

THE LEDGER has too high an appreciation of the correspondent to think he would have mentioned this incident had he known the facts connected with it, which are these:

The obnoxious banner was evolved in the brain of Mr. Ernie White, a disgruntled Free-silverman, and he "stood good for the pay" for the carriage which was occupied by one drunken Negro man, two drunken Negro women and the banner, and which brought up the rear of the procession. There has been some curiosity to know why, as "Black and White are all the same now," Mr. White did not occupy the seat alongside Miss Black, which seems to have been reserved for is what I want to talk to you about now. Very few things are so easy to lose and so hard to regain as time. Is your watch time right? Does it lose time? Perhaps it gains? Either way will keep you guessing. I repair watches so you don't have to do any guessing.

There are two reasons why I pay so much attention to watch repairing. I make money out of it of course—that's what I'm in business for—but best thing about it is that it brings good people into the store, and as I do watch work right, and at the right price, it is a convincing argument that the rest of my business is right too.

Watch Repairing, however, is only a side issue. I sell Watches, Diamonds, Jewelry, Clocks and a great variety of beautiful and useful things for gifts of all kinds. BALLENGER, the Jeweler.

him. The presence in the procession of the banner and its disgusting custodians was not known to the proper parties; had it been, the whole outfit would have been ejected.

If Mr. White can make any capital out of this incident he is welcome to it.

The marriage of Mr. Patrick Gantley of near Lewisburg, and Miss Katie Russell of Bernard will take place at St. Patrick's Church in this city Thursday morning, November 26th, at 8 o'clock.

HOW ARE PEOPLE GOING TO KNOW WHY THEY SHOULD TRADE WITH YOU IF YOU DON'T TELL THEM?

THE LEDGER WILL CARRY THE INFORMATION TO MANY THOUSANDS.

MARRIAGE A FAILURE.

At Least It Has Been With These Unhappy Couples.

Since the last term of the Mason Circuit Court thirteen divorce suits have been filed, which will be called at the term beginning today.

The title of these cases are—
Ada Reno vs. James Rego.
Fannie K. McElroy vs. E. L. McElroy.
Fannie Dimmitt vs. John Dimmitt.
Lucy Dudley vs. John Dudley.
Thomas Warner vs. Fannie Warner.
Julia M. Fiat vs. Charles Fiat.
Allie Fields vs. James Fields.
Lucy Harding vs. William M. Harding.
Louie Shomaker vs. William H. Shomaker.
Lucas Prechet vs. Nellie Prechet.
Anna Baber vs. William Baber.
James W. Case vs. Kate Case.
Talitha Thomas vs. James Thomas.

TROUBLE IN FLEMING.

The Free-Silverites Force Democrats Out of the Party.

The Free-silver Democratic County Committee of Fleming has declared that no Sound Money Democrat shall vote in the primary to be held December 5th to nominate candidates for county offices.

No one will be allowed a vote unless he makes oath that he voted for Bryan at the recent election.

As there were about 150 Democrats who voted for McKinley or Palmer and Buckner, these will necessarily have no voice in the matter, and they declare that unless the rules governing the primary are changed and they be allowed to vote they will support the Republican ticket.

There is a strong probability that the Republicans will nominate the Hon. William G. Dearing, the present incumbent, for County Attorney, and if they do they will elect him over the Hon. A. O. Stanley—or any other man who gets the Free-silver nomination.

Captain Dearing, although a lifelong Democrat, made an active and brilliant stump tour for McKinley during the recent canvass.

The three year old boy of J. A. Johnson of Lynn Center, Ill., is subject to attacks of croup. Mr. Johnson says he is satisfied that the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy during a severe attack saved his little boy's life. He is in the drug business, a member of the firm of Johnson Bros. of that place, and they handle a great many patent medicines for throat and lung diseases. He had all these to choose from and skilled physicians ready to respond to his call, but selected this remedy for use in his own family at a time when his child's life was in danger, because he knew it to be superior to any other and famous the country over for its cures of croup. Mr. Johnson says this is the best selling cough medicine they handle, and that it gives splendid satisfaction in all cases. Sold by J. James Wood, Druggist.
